OPPENHEIM

ALL THERE

A location with many advantages

Oppenheim is centrally located at the intersection of the Rhine-Main and Rhine-Neckar regions. Commuting quickly to the big cities is no problem. As a local family in the countryside - that's also easy.

Mainz, Wiesbaden, Frankfurt and Frankfurt International Airport are easily accessible to the north. Worms, Mannheim and Heidelberg are conveniently located to the south. Almost 7,000 residents enjoy living in Oppenheim and the town is growing steadily. The old town offers picturesque half-timbered houses and also stands out as a child- and youth-friendly community with two daycare centres, an old town kindergarten, a nature kindergarten and a youth centre.

Restaurants, schools, a Volksbank, a savings bank, doctors and the railway station are all within a ten-minute walk from Pfaugasse. A pharmacy, a daycare centre and a supermarket are just five minutes away by bike.

And the economy? In short: there are also good jobs in Oppenheim. The skilled trades are strong here and the entire region is one of Germany's leading service providers. Oppenheim benefits directly from the economic regions of Frankfurt and Mainz.

CULTURE, SPORT AND LEISURE ACTIVITIES

Whether it's the cultural summer, the theatre days or the traditional Katharina market in autumn: Oppenheim actively shapes its town and there is plenty to experience at any time of year. One spectacular venue is the Landskron castle ruins: with cabaret, Shakespeare and concerts in the open air, the organisers are always making an impact.

again and again. But there is also plenty for sports enthusiasts: people organise themselves in clubs, play football, tennis or take to the skies in a glider as a member of the local aero club. Best of all: the nearby Rhine! Fantastic for joggers, cyclists and for a relaxed summer picnic anyway.

WINE AND ENJOYMENT

Renowned wineries, popular gourmet walks, the annual wine festival and changing exhibitions in the German Wine Museum attract connoisseurs from near and far.
